

Welcome to Steve Johnson's World...

Steve Johnson knows a lot about printing and a lot more about digital printing. He's an on-demand pioneer and a founding member of PIA's Digital Printing Council. He's also an award-winning writer.

But most importantly, Steve Johnson *is a printer.

Steve is the president and co-founder of Copresco, a Carol Stream, IL digital printer. He's also our newest AMERICAN PRINTER columnist.

Want to get closer to Steve Johnson's World? You can.

Steve's column starts in June and will run in alternating issues opposite the inside back cover. Your ad can appear opposite this exciting and timely new feature. Call now to lock in this exclusive position.
