

Copesco celebrating 30 years of...

Exceptional Quality, Fast Service and Innovation

Copesco's birthday cake is sporting 30 candles this month in celebration of our founding in October 1987.

Although October 19, 1987 was infamously known as Black Monday when world stock markets violently crashed, it was the dawn of a new age in the printing industry.

A Better Way

President Steve Johnson believed that the future for printing was in digital technology and the fast printing of books and publications.

"We were looking for a much better, faster way of producing short-run projects," Steve says.

Snails Pace

"In those days, a copy shop might be able to get you 10 sets of a 20-page document in a day or so. Ask a commercial printer for 100 copies of a 1,000-page book with the same deadline, and you'd get a horrified look and a turnaround estimate of six weeks."

Filling an Industry Void

"We came up with an entirely new approach for faster turnaround of client projects and founded Copies Overnight.

"Long before the term was in vogue, we began printing on-demand and delivering documents...overnight.

"Along the way we changed our name to Copesco, but maintained our 'Mission Impossible' philosophy, constantly pushing the envelope by taking on challenging printing projects that others dismissed," Steve explains.

Major Move

Copesco's continual growth led to the 1999 move into a new 14,000 sq. ft. Carol Stream plant that houses our offices, the press department, bindery, shipping, fulfillment and warehousing.

Throughout our history, we have repeatedly expanded and updated our digital press facilities and enhanced our technological capabilities.

Strong Support Group

Copesco is supported by a hard-working staff with long years of service, and by a cadre of dedicated printing brokers.

Leadership Recognition

Copesco is proud to be recognized as the leader of the digital movement that has drastically changed the way books are manufactured.

We will continue to lead the way with digital technology advancements and improvements in the continually changing communications industry.

So, when you need short-run books and publications, call the company that has the skill, staff and three decades of professional experience to serve you.

Call Copesco.

Our Hometown Joins the Party

Copesco has been recognized for the anniversary of our founding by a Proclamation from the Village of Carol Stream, Illinois.

The October 16, 2017 Proclamation congratulates Copesco for our many years of industry leading service.

Our Birthday Gift to You

Copesco has a special birthday gift for our friends and clients.

The ceramic coffee mugs proudly display the Copesco logo and our 30th anniversary symbol.

Steve Johnson and Evie Johnson (no relation) give a happy 30th birthday toast with commemorative Copesco coffee mugs.

For Coffee Connoisseurs

Evelyn Johnson, shown above, thinks the mugs are great for the gallons of coffee consumed by our staff and visitors. Evie has enjoyed Copesco's coffee since joining our team in February 1991.

Drop us a line and we'll ship you our anniversary memento.

As two friends were leaving the restaurant after lunch, one said to the other “Whenever my wife needs some money, she calls me handsome. She says, ‘Hey, hand some over.’”

The world would be a much better place if people showed as much patience in every day tasks as they do when they're waiting for a fish to bite.

The definition of an optimist: a person who grabs a fishing pole when he discovers that his basement has flooded.

I just bought a new life insurance policy but the small print is hard to understand. All I'm sure of is that after I die, I can stop paying.

Betty said to Bobby, “I wish I had enough money to buy an elephant.”

Bobby asked, “Why in the world would you want an elephant?” Betty said, “I don't. I just want the money.”

A minister asked a little girl what she thought of her first church service. “The music was nice,” she replied, “but the commercial was too long.”

The best way for a man to remember his wife's birthday is to forget it just once.

Policeman: “Here's your parking ticket, ma'am.” Woman: “And just what do you do when you catch a real criminal?” Policeman: “I don't know. All I ever catch are the innocent ones.”

The average man's life consists of 20 years of having his mother ask him where he is going, 40 years of having his wife ask the same thing and at the end, the mourners wonder, too.

It seems like the principal export of the U.S. these days is money.

A man I know solved the problem of too many visiting relatives. He borrowed money from the rich ones and loaned it all to the poor ones. Now none of them come back.

A businessman who was near death asked that his remains be cremated and the ashes mailed to the Internal Revenue Service with the following note attached: “Now you have it all.”
