

Prestigious awards...Copresco Brings Home the Gold, Copper and Pewter

Copresco has won yet another national honor for printing excellence, proving once again that Copresco's digital printing expertise is just what you need to make every page of your next project look beautiful.

Gold Ink Competition

Copresco brought home the Gold in the Gold Ink Award competition for a brand overview book of hair-care products.

Beautiful to Behold

Full page, full bleed black solids throughout combined with fashion and product images grabbed the attention of the judges (and our client's customers!) as well as the oblong binding style and the gorgeous soft-touch laminating on the covers.

Some people may think mechanical binding is strictly utilitarian, however Copresco's award shows that projects like this can be beautiful as well.

Trophy Case Bulging

Even though the trophy case is full, Copresco also won a Copper Award for an introductory brochure for a global investment firm.

The thin booklet would normally have been saddle stapled, but Copresco combined perfect binding and hinge scoring with beautiful full-color digital printing to take this piece to the next level.

And a Pewter, Too

But wait, there's more! This award cycle was rounded out with a Pewter Award for a financial institution's annual report that married a beautifully embossed cover with a color body.

Highly Regarded

The Gold Ink program, sponsored by Printing Impressions magazine, is considered to be the industry's most prestigious print competition.

Thousands of entries are received each year from printers around the world who are looking to be recognized by their customers, prospects and industry peers for their superior craftsmanship.

GBC Punch Installed

Copresco has installed a General Binding Corporation G2 punch to expand the binding capabilities for our digitally printed projects.

John Ruder changes a die on the new General Binding punch.

More Wallop

"This new inline punch will supplement our fleet of off-line drills and punches," says Copresco President Steve Johnson.

Great Combination

In line with our Konica-Minolta press, the General Binding Corporation G2 provides brilliant, professionally printed, punched and ready-to-bind documents—in one easy step.

Fast Turnaround

Our new inline G2 punch means even faster turnaround for looseleaf, plastic coil, and double loop wire bound books, assuring that even with our growing production volumes, Copresco will continue to honor its Copies Overnight promise.

Multiple Options

The G2 offers numerous multiple-hole die set options with selectable pins for the most common professional punch patterns.

We can punch a wide range of sheet sizes, on both the long and short edge of the sheet. This includes the ability to punch tabs. With this greater punching power, Copresco can now handle a wider variety of substrates and thicknesses.

Snow, Snow and More Snow

Neither snow, nor ice or gloom of day could keep Copresco's staff from fulfilling our mission: Printing your publications, books and manuals with haste and no waste.

Even with a foot of snow falling, we were on the job meeting your deadlines for black & white and color projects.

We're Ready When You Are

So, when you need help with digital printing, call Copresco. We have the staff, the know-how and expertise to weather any storm.

A city doctor, fed up with the rat race, moved his practice to the countryside. One farmer became quite sick, and required numerous house calls. But after a few visits the doctor refused to come to the farm. The puzzled farmer phoned him and said, "What's the matter? Was it something I said?" "No," the doctor replied, "it's your ducks at the gate. Every time I enter the farm, they insult me!"

"Your application says that you left your last job because of sickness. Could you explain that, please?" "Certainly. My boss got sick of me."

One of the best prayers we've heard:

"Lord, please make me the kind of person my dog thinks I am."
